FROM OUR PRIESTS

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This weekend begins a three-part preaching series on the mission statement of St. John the Baptist Parish: "We exist to form a community of Spirit-filled missionary disciples of Jesus." These three weeks are about unpacking what that means, and today we will look at what it means to be Spirit-filled. Obviously that is a topic that takes more than one weekend, since it's one of the key themes of the New Testament and even of the Old Testament. But we will at least dip our toes in.

At Jesus' baptism, the Holy Spirit is seen descending upon Him in the form of a dove, showing us that Jesus, in addition to being fully God and so revealing God to us, is also fully man; and so He will also show us what it looks like to be human and filled with the Holy Spirit. We can look at the life of Jesus and see that He lives a sinless life and demonstrates the fruits of the Holy Spirit, and we can also see that He does mighty deeds. Through being filled with the Holy Spirit, we are enabled to imitate Him in these ways.

First, the fruits of the Spirit: "The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control." (Gal. 5:22-23) When we are filled with the Spirit, our lives are characterized by these actions and attitudes. These are placed in contrast with the works of the flesh: "Now the works of the flesh are plain: immorality, impurity, licentiousness, idolatry, sorcery, enmity, strife, jealousy, anger, selfishness, dissension, party spirit, envy, drunkenness, carousing, and the like." (Gal. 5:19-21) When we are filled with the Holy Spirit, our lives will stand out from the world around us by our actions and our attitudes.

Then we have the gifts of the Spirit. Scripture gives us multiple lists of gifts of the Holy Spirit. In the Old Testament, we hear of this list: Wisdom, Understanding, Counsel, Might (also called Fortitude), Knowledge, and the Fear of the Lord. (Isa. 11) These gifts are for the believer in his/her relationship with God; they are especially poured out in Confirmation, and all of them are for each of us.

Finally, we have the New Testament lists of gifts of the Spirit, and these gifts are specifically for when a disciple goes on mission. These are not so much to bless you but to bless and encourage those around you. 1 Corinthians 12 has this list: "To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the ability to distinguish between spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are inspired by one and the same Spirit, who apportions to each one individually as he wills." (1 Cor. 12) Not all of these are given to each believer, but when the Body of Christ is united, the whole body will not be lacking in any of them provided that each of us is open to receiving the gifts the Holy Spirit wants to give to us. So, be open to the fullness of all the Holy Spirit has for you, because He greatly desires to work through you and with you to bless others.

God Bless You, Fr. Dan

LIVING SPIRIT-FILLED DISCIPLESHIP

A TESTIMONY BY Clare Finn

I have had the wonderful grace and privilege of being brought up in a Catholic, Christ-centered family. My parents showed me what it means to walk with the Lord, to be his disciple, and how to be in relationship with him. Some of my first memories are of my parents praying together in the early morning before the day began. When I was ten years old, my parents had me set aside time each day for prayer, for they knew how important time with the Lord was in order to encounter him and to foster my personal relationship with him. What at first began in obedience turned into habit, which led to the desire to be with the One who first loved me. Thanks to their initial prompting, I have continued this daily practice and I am forever grateful.

However, life happens. A few years ago, I felt distant from God and was overcome with a sense of hopelessness regarding my future. All this changed when I went to Scotland to participate in a missionary program for nine months. There, I encountered the love of God in a profound way and had a deep conversion. My faith and love for the Lord came alive like never before. I experienced the Lord move powerfully through prophecy, hearing the Lord's voice for myself and others, through praying for and seeing firsthand miraculous healings, as well as many quiet, intimate moments in prayer. It was like I was living out the Acts of the Apostles in my daily life. I came to realize for certain that what God says and promises in Holy Scripture is true. I had read and heard these same passages proclaimed many times before, but they were no longer true just for the Apostles, no longer just for the Saints; they are true for me, and they are true for you.

Just as the Holy Spirit descended upon Jesus and never left him, so, too, at our Baptism, we receive, as a pure gift, that same Spirit. My dear brothers and sisters, "the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you" (Rom 8:11). "Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit...?" (1 Cor 6:19) "But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you..." (Acts 1:8) How amazing is our God!

I pray every one of us experiences a deeper conversion, a greater capacity to receive God's love and to love him more in return. Let us all, at every age, abandon ourselves to Love himself who lives in us, so that we may be filled and overflow, have life and have it in abundance.

Peace and love be with you,
Clare

CAMPUS MINISTRY, SEEK 2026

It has been quite a blast being at SEEK this year! It was a gift to pray, eat, travel and share many meaningful moments together as a community. The highlight for many of our students was an extended time of Adoration and Worship on Saturday night. Many were grateful for time with the Lord and the opportunity to hear Him speaking into their lives.

A special thank you to you who prayed for us and who donated to No Shave November. Almost everyone in our group of 30 students was able to receive the financial help they needed to attend this conference! You were in our prayers during the SEEK.

Finally, pray for our students as they come back that they may have the courage to boldly proclaim the name of Jesus on our college campuses!

St. Felix of Nola

JANUARY 14TH, 2026

St. Felix of Nola was a Christian presbyter at Nola, near Naples, Italy. He sold off his possessions in order to give to the poor, but was arrested and tortured for his Christian faith during the persecution of Emperor Decius. Felix was the oldest son of Hermias, a Syrian soldier who had retired to Nola, Italy. After the passing of his father, he sold off his belongings, gave the money to the poor, and pursued a clerical vocation. St. Maximus ordained Felix, and they worked together.

Bishop Maximus fled to the mountains to escape the persecution of the Roman Emperor Decius, but Felix remained and was arrested, and beaten for his faith. He escaped prison; legend has it that an angel freed him, so he could help Bishop Maximus. When he found Maximus alone, ill, and helpless, he hid him from the soldiers in a vacant building. When the two were safely inside, a spider quickly spun a web over the door, fooling the imperial forces into thinking it was long abandoned. They left without finding them. Later on, an attempt to arrest Felix followed, which he avoided by hiding in a ruined building where again, a spider's web spun across the entrance, convincing the soldiers that the building was abandoned as well. The two managed to hide from authorities until the persecution ended with the death of Emperor Decius in 251.

After Maximus's death, the people wanted Felix to be the next Bishop of Nola, but he declined. He continued on as a Priest, and continued to farm his land, and gave most of the proceeds to people even poorer than himself. It is believed that St. Felix of Nola was martyred for his faith in 255 under the Emperor Valerian. Much of the information we have about this saint comes from the letters and poetry of St. Paulinus of Nola, who served at the door of the Church dedicated to St. Felix, and who gathered information about him. This Church is the place of his burial.

Saint Felix of Nola, pray for us!
